Final Office Action

Claims 1, 3-26 are pending. Amendments are entered.

Summary of this Office Action

1. Information Disclosure Statement
2. Copending Applications
3. Specification
4. 35 USC § 103(a) Rejection
5. Response to Remarks
6. Conclusion
7. Communication

Information Disclosure Statement

Copies of the foreign patents are not provided by the Applicants therefore not considered. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Copending Applications

Applicants must bring to the attention of the examiner, or other Office official involved with the examination of a particular application, information within their knowledge as to other copending United States applications, which are "material to patentability" of the application in question. MPEP 2001.06(b). See Dayco Products Inc. v. Total Containment Inc., 66 USPQ2d 1801 (CA FC 2003).

Specification

The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1, 3-10 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over United States Patent No.4, 748,173. See the entire document especially lines 25-68 in column 10 and formula "F" in line 44 of column 10,, abstract, lines 21-68 in column 7, column 8.

The reference teaches the compounds Formula I can be converted to the desired compounds of formula I by treatment with appropriate amine of formula F.

The reference teaches heterocyclic aminoalkyl esters of mycophenolic acid, the derivatives and the pharmaceutically acceptable salts thereof, useful as immunosuppressive agents, anti-inflammatory agents, anti tumor agents, anti viral agents and anti psoriatic agents.

Instant claims differ from the reference in claiming a broader scope of the invention.

It would have obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was filed to prepare an amino derivative of mycophenolate mofetil and purify it because the reference teaches the derivatization by amino compounds. One would prepare the compound and purify it for use. So the purification of the derivatives would have been prima facie obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was filed. No new concept or unexpected results are noted by the Examiner. The data presented in the specification does not commensurate with the scope of the claims.

In the light of the forgoing discussion, the Examiner's ultimate legal conclusion is that the subject matter defined by the instant claims would have been obvious within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Response to Remarks

Applicant's response filed on 7/23/10 is hereby acknowledged. Applicant's election of group I, claims 1, 2 and 3-10 are provisionally elected with traverse is acknowledged. Applicant's arguments were fully considered but are not found persuasive. Applicant argues that prior does not teach nor suggest the removal of by-products which includes a dimer (II) as on page 8 of the response. Even if the reference does not specifically states "dimer" one skilled in the art the time the invention was made would clearly understand that the by-products may contain various compounds. It appears that Applicant have identified the compound which is dimer from the by-products which does not make the claimed process novel.

The rejection is maintained.

In order to expedite the prosecution Applicant may consider calling the Examiner to discuss the issues.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
